

Marion Shoard

Writer | Broadcaster | Lecturer
www.marionshoard.co.uk

A Survival Guide to Later Life

by Marion Shoard,

(published by Constable and Robinson, 2004, 640 pages, ISBN 1-84119-372-0)

Contents

Acknowledgements

Foreword by Dr James Le Fanu

How to Use This Book

Introduction

Part One: Growing Older

1: The Ageing Body

2: Changing Needs

The Body

The Mind

The Spirit

Part Two: The Care Machine

3: State Support

Social Care

The Health Service

4: The Voluntary World

Part Three: Staying Independent

5: Adapting Surroundings

Gadgets and Aids

Incontinence

6: Moving Around

Mobility

Exercise

Falls

7: Where to Live

Moving House

Retirement Housing

At Home

8: Keeping in Touch

Making Friends

Day Centres

Faith Groups

Animal Magic

- 9: Professional Helpers
Your GP
In the Home

Part Four: Care Homes

- 10: Choosing a Home
Basics
The Selection Process
- 11: The Cost
Fees
Paying the Bills
Spouses and Partners
- 12: Going In
A Trial Stay
Preparing for Entry
The First Few Weeks
Life in the Home
Moving Out
Respite and Intermediate Care Advice

Part Five: Hospitals

- 13: Treatment
Ageism
Rehabilitation and Other Care (Example: Strokes)
- 14: Your Life in their Hands
Withholding and Withdrawing Medical Treatment
- 15: Discharge
Living with Continuing Care

Part Six: Money

- 16: State Benefits
Fundamentals
Benefits for All
Benefits for the Needy
Administration and Advice
- 17: Self-help
Private Pensions
Insurance
Living off your House
Protecting Inheritance

Part Seven:Representation

- 18: Legal and Financial Granting Enduring Power of Attorney
- 19: Nursing and Other Care

Part Eight: Carers:

Marion Shoard:

Writer | Broadcaster | Lecturer
www.marionshoard.co.uk

20: A Vital Role
A Statutory Carer

21: Practicalities
Carers' Assessments
State Benefits for Carers
Other Calculations
The Main Caring Relative

Conclusion

Appendix:

Complaints

Complaints about Local Government

Complaints about the NHS

References

Useful Contacts

Index